

Brigadier General Michael R. Nevin
Commander, 177th Military Police Brigade
Joint Task Force 134 - Iraq

Brigadier General Michael R. Nevin began his military career as an enlisted soldier in the United States Army Reserve in July 1980. He was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant from the Reserve Officer Training Corps at Michigan State University in June of 1982.

General Nevin is a career combat arms officer having served over 20 years in the 46th "Wolverine" Brigade, 38th Infantry Division (Mechanized) in both Armor and Infantry assignments. He has commanded at the platoon, company, battalion, and regimental level. Approximately one-half of his commissioned service has been in command and troop leading positions. In October of 2003, Brig. Gen. Nevin was mobilized with the 38th Infantry Division and served as the Chief of Staff of the Multinational Task Force in Bosnia until December 2004.

Brig. Gen. Nevin is a graduate of the Armor Officer Basic and Advanced Courses, the Advanced Military Police Branch Orientation Course, the Combined Arms and Services Staff School, the Command and General Staff College, and the Army War College.

In July 2006, Colonel Nevin was assigned as the Commanding General of the 177th Military Police Brigade.